Major Shakeup In School Districts In Adams County Due Under New State Law

Unless the state legislature changes its mind at a future session, Adams County's school districts are in for a major shakeup during the next four years.

Tuesday Governor David Lawrence signed into law a bill providing for reorganization of the state's schools into large units.

Just how that will affect Adams County's schools won't be known exactly until about January 1, but it seems certain to have a tremendous effect on the various jointures and mergers in the county.

AWAIT INTERPRETATION

Assistant County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson said today the ramifications of the law will not be entirely known until the end of December. Coulson said the law as signed is written in "highly legal terms" and as a result the state Department of Public Instruction is now engaged in figuring out what the legislature and governor actually said when they passed the law.

It will then present its ideas of what the law means to the state Council of Education. The state school board will then let the rest of the school officials in the state know what is to be done to meet the requirements of the law.

The law provides for a minimum of 4,000 pupils (or population of 22,000) for a school district. It also provides that the State Council of Education can make exceptions when hardship is shown. But even where exceptions are made, the absolute minimum pupil population permitted for a school district is 2,500.

PRESENT FIGURES

At present Gettysburg is the only school district in Adams County with 2,500 students. All the others are far below that figure.

Gettysburg Jointure has about 2,750 students; Upper Adams, about 1,500; Lower Adams, Berksville, and Littlestown each about 1,200 to 1,300; Fairfield Jointure about 750.

There are two independent districts in the county, Conowingo Twp. with about 300 pupils and Franklin Twp. which belongs to Gettysburg Jointure on the high school level but is independent in its operation of the elementary grades. It has about 350 students in its elementary school.

CHANGES SEEM CERTAIN

Thus even a 2,500-minimum would force reshuffling of the county's present school districts. Assistant Superintendent Coulson said that, pending the clarification expected by January 1, "it would appear that Adams County will not be eligible for the smaller school districts under the new law."

That would mean the county will probably have to be turned into two, or more likely one, large school district.

Coulson said any predictions "are anybody's guess at the moment," but said that "under any interpretation it would appear that the county will have to make some changes."

DEADLINE SET

The Adams County School Board which had hoped to avoid any major reshuffling apparently will not get its wish.

The board will have to begin in January the drawing of a new county plan. And there are some indications that if the county board is forced into a new plan it will make one to embrace the whole county into one district and thus "get it over with."

Under the new law, if the county board does not come up with an acceptable plan by July 1, 1962 (a date that is also subject to change after the state gets through the matter), the state Council of Education will be forced by the law to draw up a new plan for school organization for the county.

The new law also apparently has the teeth in it to force the reorganization.

RELISHED BY FEW

The change is not one relished by school directors and officials who recall the hundreds of meetings, some lasting until early in the morning, the sometimes hot tempers and the arguments that took place over a period of several years when the new jointures were set up in recent years.

"I hate to go through that again," one school official commented.

The new school alignments must be in operation by July 1, 1965, according to the present law. The only thing that could change that would be for the state legisla-

U.S. Opens Underground Nuclear Tests In Nevada With Junior-Size Package

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States began its underground nuclear test series with an apparently junior-size blast packing a punch equivalent to 1,000 tons of TNT—possibly less.

President Kennedy announced that Friday's low yield, no-fallout underground explosion took place in a remote, highly guarded section of Nevada. There was no advance announcement and the blast was not audible in the nearest city, Las Vegas, 65 miles away.

In his statement, Kennedy said, "The detonation has produced no fallout. This is in marked contrast to the Soviet nuclear tests in the atmosphere."

He added, "The United States once again reaffirms its readiness to negotiate a controlled test ban agreement of the widest possible scope."

REDS BROKE PACT

Fifteen days ago, the Soviets junked their three-year moratorium on nuclear testing. They have fired 10 blasts into the atmosphere in their current test series.

1. The White House described the explosive yield of the blast only as one of "low yield."

2. A University of California seismologist reported that his seismograph had recorded the earthquake from the blast. He said its magnitude on the earthquake scale of reckoning was 4. That would be a moderate earthquake.

It was the 104th nuclear explosion at the Nevada proving grounds. The 103rd shot was set off nearly three years ago.

Word of the blast was flashed to Washington over an open telephone line from the test site to Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, who relayed it over a direct line to the President at the White House.

Two Turkish Leaders Hanged

ISTANBUL (AP) — Turkey's former Foreign Minister Fatih Zorlu and former Finance Minister Hassan Polatkan were hanged today.

A government communique said they were the first top officials sent to the gallows for violation of the constitution under the military junta ruling the government.

The executions were believed to be in Istanbul, a prison island in the sea of Marmara.

The communique said former Premier Adnan Menderes, who had been sentenced to hang, was too ill to stand execution and that he would be hanged at a later date.

The National Unity Committee, which rules Turkey, upheld death sentences Friday for Menderes, Zorlu and Polatkan.

Former President Celal Bayar, who had raised his voice against the trial, was given a life sentence.

Doctors performed a stomach pumping operation on Menderes Friday. An analysis reportedly showed traces of a heavy dose of sleeping pills. Menderes frequently received such medication during his trial, according to informants.

tristate winners in the eastern regional event representing 12 states.

The contest was held at the W. Springfield, Mass., High School Friday night as part of a regional program in which some 500 FFA members are taking part in various types of events.

DEFEATED TRIO

First local youth to win state and regional FFA public speaking contests, he was accompanied to the convention by his parents and agriculture teacher, Elmer H. Schriver.

He spoke on "Reclaiming Our Soil Heritage," a subject which not only won him the Pennsylvania FFA public speaking honors previously but also won the state Soil Conservation District public speaking award.

At W. Springfield he was in competition with Joseph Perrigo of New Hampshire; Jerry Methany, W. Virginia, and G. Tracy Atwood, Connecticut.

NEXT DATE OCT. 12

By winning the regional event, Tilberg qualifies to participate in the national FFA finals to be held October 12 at Kansas City, Mo., as part of the national FFA convention. There he will compete against similar regional winners from throughout the U. S.

In Friday's contest each of the participants spoke for 10 minutes on the subject of their own choosing, then was subject to five minutes of questioning by the judges. The scoring was based on points for written manuscript, delivery and reply to the questions.

State Troopers To Speak On Safety

State police from the local substation will show films and speak on traffic safety in county schools in January, Assistant County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson notified school officials today.

Arrangements for the talks and films on pedestrian, bicycle and auto safety were made in cooperation with Sgt. Joseph Tappe, commanding officer of the local substation of state police, Coulson said.

Robert L. Gardner, 30, York Springs R. 2, Huntington Twp., who was under bail to appear October 9 before the county court on surety of the peace and pointing a deadly weapon charges brought by his wife, early this morning was fatally shot as he sought to force his way into his father-in-law's home on Gardner R. 2 in Cumberland County.

State police at Carlisle said Gardner went to the home of Robert Kohler, near Gardner, about 12:30 o'clock this morning. When he was refused admittance, he began firing rifle shots through the door of the house. Kohler fired back, also through the door, and a bullet struck Gardner in the stomach.

Kohler, who was shot in the right leg in the exchange, was reported as "satisfactory" by the Carlisle Hospital. HAD HEARING HERE

A surety of the peace charge was brought against Gardner, a construction worker, by his wife, Mary G. L. Gardner, before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder here on July 22. Gardner was arrested on a warrant by Carlisle police September 4 and placed in the county jail here for a hearing September 6.

At the hearing, Mrs. Gardner gave this information to the justice, according to his transcript on file at the clerk of courts office: Mr. and Mrs. Gardner were enroute home by car on the night of July 20 when Gardner, who had been drinking, asked his wife to give him $1 for more beer. She refused, saying she had no money. Arriving home she began to prepare supper while her husband slept. She awoke him when the meal was prepared. He came into the kitchen and threw the food and dishes to the floor and against the wall. He then secured a .32 caliber pistol. She grabbed their son and ran from the building. Her husband fired seven shots around her and one shot at her as she and her son hid behind a tractor. The child "nearly went into a spasm."

Gardner also shot to pieces five milk bottles sitting on the porch.

Gardner, then, according to the transcript, grabbed his wife.

WIFE FLED HOME

Putting his pistol against his wife's back, according to the transcript, Gardner forced her to clean up the "mess" he had made on the walls and floor. Later the night of July 20, when she was able, Mrs. Gardner fled her husband and home and had not returned since, according to the transcript.

Gardner was held in jail in default of $1,000 bail, $500 on the pointing the gun charge and $500 on the surety of the peace charge to appear for sentence by the court October 9.

Later on September 6, he was released on $1,000 bail furnished by his parents.

There were no further incidents officially reported until this morning.

REFUSED ADMITTANCE

Carlisle state police said Gardner appeared at the Kohler home in a rural area near Gardner at 12:30 a.m. carrying a 30-30 rifle. When he sought admittance to the house, Mr. and Mrs. Kohler refused to open the door.

State police said an argument ensued and Gardner fired through the door. One of the shots struck Kohler in the leg.

Kohler then secured a 30-30 rifle in the house and returned a shot through the door. When Gardner did not fire again, Kohler opened the door and found Gardner lying on the ground, shot in the midsection.

DEAD AT SCENE

Kohler called state police who arrived with Dr. Edward W. Haelele, Cumberland County coroner, who pronounced Gardner dead at the scene.

Kohler was then removed to the Carlisle Hospital. Mrs. Kohler escaped injury in the shooting.

SON-IN-LAW OF ROCKY FACING TERM IN JAIL

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The son-in-law of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and 14 other Episcopal clergymen faced a weekend in jail today instead of attending their church convention.

The ministers—12 white persons and three Negroes—were convicted Friday night on charges of breach of the peace for attempting to desegregate a bus terminal waiting room.

The ministers, including Rockefeller's son-in-law, The Rev. Robert L. Pierson, 35, of New York City and Evanston, Ill., were fined $200 and sentenced to four months in jail.

BREACH OF PEACE

The same weekend fate didn't face Yale University Chaplain William S. Coffin, a Presbyterian, or nine other "Freedom Riders," convicted on breach of peace charges in Montgomery, Ala.

Judge Alex Marks ordered fines of $100 and jail terms ranging from 10 to 90 days for that group Friday night. They immediately posted appeal bond of $750 to $1,000 and were released.

No move was made in Jackson to post bond for the ministers who were enroute to the 60th General Convention of the Episcopal Church Sunday in Detroit, Mich. Thirteen others in the group did not attempt desegregation. Seven of them expected to continue on to Detroit by plane.

EPISCOPAL JUDGE

Before sentencing, Municipal Judge James Spencer, who is also an Episcopalian, told the courtroom, "I find my duty clear. I believe they violated the laws of Mississippi and the articles of religion of their faith."

Special prosecutor Robert Nichols, an Episcopalian, said one of the articles of religion admonished Episcopalians to obey civil authority.

The Rev. John Crocker, 37, of Providence, R.I., testified for the defense.

Judge Spencer said he was impressed by the Rev. Crocker's feeling that the racial question, was national rather than purely local.

Weather

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau said Friday its 30-day outlook for mid-September calls for temperatures to average below seasonal normals over most of the nation.

However, temperatures are expected to be above normal over the Northeast and near normal in the Middle Atlantic states, the West Coast states and Florida.

The bureau said the Central Plains are expected to be the area of most unseasonable coolness.

Precipitation is expected to exceed normal along the West Coast and Atlantic seaboard, the bureau said, with subnormal rainfall indicated for the Northern Plains and for the Lower Ohio Valley and Tennessee. In the remainder of the nation, about normal amounts are in prospect.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Five priests from Havana's Church of the Charity, including Bishop Eduardo Boza Masvidal, have been arrested, reports reaching Miami from church and diplomatic sources said Friday.

The arrests were made in the aftermath of an anti-Communist riot last Sunday in front of the church.

Church and diplomatic sources have said that the Fidel Castro campaign against what it calls the "high falangist clergy" because of the Sept. 10 demonstrations.

U.N. Troops Hard-Pressed By Tshombe's Forces At 3 Key Centers In Katanga

By DENNIS NEEDLE

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Hard-pressed U.N. troops held out at key points in Katanga today while reinforcements were rushed in and the United Nations tried to reason with Katanga President Moise Tshombe.

The three major centers of military action were the capital at Elisabethville, the mining town of Jadotville 60 miles northwest of the capital and Kamina base in northern Katanga. Casualties were heavy, and Katanga forces gained control of large sectors of Elisabethville, U.N. sources said. Tshombe was believed still in Elisabethville.

Katanga forces, led by white officers, attacked in all three places Friday and put U.N. soldiers on the defensive in their campaign to disarm the Katangan army and win it back for the central Congolese government. Revenues from the mineral-rich province are vital to the Congolese treasury.

SIX-DAY SIEGE

The 150 Irish soldiers at Jadotville were originally sent there to protect the European population. They have been under siege for six days, although the open fighting for Katanga did not begin until early Wednesday.

They were surrounded by well-armed Katanga troops and hundreds of fanatical Beyeka tribesmen, a U.N. relief column was turned back by Katangan roadblocks, reinforced by heavy machine guns.

Conor Cruise O'Brien, an Irishman who is the chief U.N. representative in Katanga, said enough Katangan prisoners had been captured to set up an exchange for the Irish if necessary. Radio Free Katanga, Tshombe's station, declared that 10 U.N. prisoners would be executed for every Katangan killed. About 130 Irish U.N. troops were prisoners when the announcement was made. It followed orders from U.N. officials for the summary execution of any Katangan civilian found carrying weapons.

The orders came from Brig. S. K. Raja of India, the U.N. military commander. He decreed a state of emergency and an 8 p.m. curfew.

The U.N. second in command in Katanga, Michel Tombelain, said Friday that Tshombe would soon talk with U.N. authorities. Tshombe had vowed to fight "to the last bullet."

Says East And West Must Make Berlin Concessions To Avoid Ugly Showdown

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The real question between the West and Russia on Berlin is not whether one will yield to the other but how much both are willing to yield.

Both will have to make concessions to avoid an ugly showdown unless Premier Khrushchev's repeated determination to have a final settlement has been bluff from the start.

It can hardly be all bluff. He's stuck his neck out too far to back down altogether. To do so, after all his threats, would be complete defeat for Russia. So it can be taken for granted he will insist on some victory.

The unknown element in his performance—and it can only be discovered through negotiation—is how much or how little will he settle for.

WILL DEMAND CONCESSION

The West cannot make all the concessions without suffering in turn, in the eyes of the world, a complete defeat. Therefore, for concessions it makes, it will demand concessions from Russia.

At this point the U. S. government is not talking of making concessions at all. It would be nonsense to do so. The Russians would simply use them as concessions already conceded and say: What concessions are you going to make?

It would be equally implausible for this country to pretend it will make no concessions. It already did so—even though they were meager—when it negotiated with the Russians in 1959 on Berlin.

LIMIT FORCES

At that time the United States, Britain and France offered a plan which included these concessions: Limiting the Allied force in Berlin to 11,000 men; keeping nuclear weapons and rockets out of Berlin; letting East German Communists control the access routes to Berlin on behalf of Russia (this was a device to save the West from having to admit the East German Communists, whom the West refuses formally to recognize as the legitimate government of East Germany, have a right of their own to control the routes); a United Nations monitoring service could be set up in an effort to control hostile political propaganda in both East and West Berlin.

The Russians, who previously had insisted all Allied troops must get out of Berlin, just as Khrushchev is insisting now, in 1959 suggested it would be all right to keep up to, but no more than 4,000 Allied troops in the city. And the Russians talked of making other concessions.

DELAYED SHOWDOWN

But in all this they never agreed on much. The meeting broke up. Khrushchev came to the United States. He delayed forcing a showdown. A summit meeting with President Eisenhower was arranged in May 1960. Khrushchev broke that up. And now he's making fresh demands on President Kennedy. This time he sounds more earnest, talks and acts tougher.

Kennedy has said: "We cannot and will not permit the Communists to drive us out of Berlin, either gradually or by force." He said the West will insist on the right of free access to West Berlin which lies 110 miles inside Communist East Germany.

U.N. TROOPS?

This is where he will demand some concession from Khrushchev. The Russian argues that the West no longer has a right to keep troops in Berlin but he says

So here—the contrast between the Kennedy and Khrushchev views—are some of the stumbling points which will have to be resolved in some way. There are others.

Perhaps to save face the two sides will agree on some arrangement for United Nations' neutral troops to move into Berlin to make sure it stays free of both Western and Communist domination.

TRUMAN WARNS LEGION POLICY INVITES WAR

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman told the American Legion convention Thursday its resolution calling for liberation of peoples behind the Iron Curtain would lead to war if it became U.S. policy.

In a question-and-answer session at the final convention meeting, Truman said: "I don't know what you know about the policy of containment, but I started it. If you want to go to war, do what you're crying about. That's the way to start it."

The legionnaires, in one of some 500 resolutions adopted, called for abandonment of efforts to contain international communism. It proposed instead the liberation of captive peoples by any means, including military.

BACON CHOSEN

Charles L. Bacon of Kansas City, Mo., became the national commander of the 2,600,000-member veterans organization and pledged to lead it in an attack on communism.

"If we fail to maintain our position in the forefront of an all-out attack on communism, then I say to you that all of the sacrifices of the past will be meaningless and future generations could well name us as their betrayers," Bacon said as he became the Legion's 45th commander.

Bacon promised to carry out the Legion program which, among other things, asks the United States to resume nuclear testing underground and in space and calls for a halt to trade with Communist nations.

Bacon, 51, a lawyer, was elected by acclamation at the closing session of the convention. During World War II he was a naval officer. He succeeds William R. Burke of Long Beach, Calif.

UNITED FUND MONTHS SET BY GOVERNOR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence designated the months of October and November Friday as "United Fund and Community Chest Time" in Pennsylvania.

The governor endorsed the annual fund-raising campaign as "the practical way to support these community services which supplement governmental activities."

In a speech prepared for the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania United Fund, the governor extended his personal and official commendations to the volunteers who participate in the fund-raising drives across the state.

He also was scheduled to present an award to Dr. Henry Alexander Riddle, Lewistown, for public service.

"In Riddle," said the governor, "it is obvious that the citizens of Lewistown, and indeed, all of Pennsylvania, have a shining example of the kind of humanitarian who not only helps to remedy the existing ills of a community, but goes beyond this to shape its future and make it a better place in which to live."

Nuclear Expert Raps Many False Radiation Tales; Urges Adequate Defenses

EDITOR'S NOTE: A dreaded byproduct of nuclear blast is radioactive fallout. How great is the danger it presents to human survival? In this last of three articles an eminent atomic scientist argues for a calm appraisal.

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A frequent prediction about nuclear war is that radioactivity would poison the earth and all forms of life.

"This is certainly not true," says Dr. Edward Teller, one of the world's most prominent nuclear physicists.

"The danger of radioactivity has been grossly exaggerated."

"We must do everything possible to avoid war. But if, despite that, war does come, unreasonable fear of radioactivity could lead to panic and to widespread, needless loss of life."

"For example, popular writings have even suggested that radiation sickness can be transmitted from persons to persons, like a contagious disease."

"If there were a war, this means a person who had been exposed to radiation might be denied admission to a shelter from fear of him."

"Instead, the humane thing would be to try to save his life. His contaminated clothing should be removed, and treatment started for radiation sickness. Care should be taken to dispose safely of his radioactive body wastes. But that victim could not really harm others in the shelter."

Radiation is the new—and to most people mysterious—element in nuclear weapons. Immediate radiation, mainly in the form of neutrons, can kill persons close enough to the bomb center.

BOMB CLOUD

More insidiously, the bomb releases a cloud of radioactivity which is carried away by winds, then falls to earth. It forms a heavy pattern on the ground near the explosion, then rapidly decreases in intensity.

But for years, radioactivity can rain down around the earth in the form of long-lasting radioactive atoms, such as strontium-90. This fallout generated a violent political and scientific controversy as to the danger only from tests, and the moral question of spreading contamination in order to test weapons.

RADIATION SEA

Everyone agrees humans have always lived in a small sea of radiation from natural sources such as cosmic rays and radioactive rocks.

All agree the further radioactivity from fallout has added—thus far—only about 2 per cent more to the natural radioactivity.

At this point, even the scientists split.

SCIENTISTS SPLIT

Some hold the added radioactivity means hundreds to thousands of babies will be born deformed, or stillborn, and that elements such as strontium-90 will cause or are causing more human cancer.

Other scientists including Dr. Teller insist there has been no damage yet, or that the added risk is too tiny to measure. The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission takes this official view.

KENNEDY SAYS US TESTS WILL BE UNREPORTED

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's new nuclear tests will be conducted in complete secrecy except for such announcements as the White House makes, and some shots may not be announced at all.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Friday there will be no news coverage of the tests slated to begin in a week or 10 days.

This is a departure from the practice during the Eisenhower administration and in the Truman administration when tests in Nevada and the Pacific were open to newsmen.

KENNEDY DESCRIPTION

President Kennedy himself apparently made the decision. In any event, it was a White House ruling rather than one of the Pentagon or the Atomic Energy Commission.

Kennedy announced Sept. 5 that he had ordered resumption of nuclear tests, in the laboratory and underground, with no fallout, because the Soviet Union had resumed testing.

The Soviets fired the tenth in a series of test blasts Thursday, all of them having been in the atmosphere with attendant fallout.

Commissioners To Get Pay Increases

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's first class township commissioners can look forward to higher salaries, starting Nov. 12.

The pay hikes were provided in a new law signed by Gov. Lawrence Thursday.

The act boosts from $1,000 to $1,500 the annual salaries of commissioners in townships with populations between 5,000 and 30,000.

Salaries for commissioners in townships of more than 30,000 will be between 15,000 and 30,000.

Salaries for commissioners in townships of more than 30,000 people will go from $1,200 to $1,800.

Democrats Kick Off Drive For Nov. 7 Election Funds

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Apparently undaunted by heat, humidity, a tricky public address system and an hour-and-a-half late start, Pennsylvania Democrats have inaugurated their fall campaign.

More than 5,000 willing $100-a-plate diners braved 80-degree temperatures Thursday night to help their party open its drive to seek votes for hundreds of municipal offices in the Nov. 7 election and for Supreme Court Justice Anne X. Alpern, party nominee for a full 21-year term on the high court.

Featured attraction of the night at Harrisburg's Zumbo Mosque was Edward M. "Ted" Kennedy, youngest brother of the President, who arrived for his speaking engagement some two hours late from Texas.

SPKOE YEAR AGO

The younger Kennedy, a carbon copy of his presidential brother who made a key campaign speech in Harrisburg a year ago, urged Pennsylvania Democrats to go all out to win their 1961 election.

He told his audience that it is essential to party improvement to win local, as well as national elections.

By the time Kennedy began speaking at 10:30 p.m. half of the banquet crowd had drifted away. The men who remained were in shirtsleeves. Women fanned themselves vigorously with programs.

It was an evening marked by irritating delays, though they never seriously quenched the partisan ardor of the diners.

STARTED HOME LATE

First of all, the speech-making failed to get off at the advertised 7 p.m. In fact, it was 9:15 when the introductions of the myriad of distinguished guests began.

Former Gov. George M. Leader drew two thunderous ovations from the crowd—once when he appeared on the podium, and again when he was introduced.

As Genevieve Blatt, secretary of internal affairs, began her introduction of Miss Alpern—the only Democratic statewide candidate this year—the sound system in the huge auditorium went dead.

For more than 10 minutes the program stopped, the audience steamed and the technicians fussed with the anaconda of wires and cables feeding the microphones. Finally, an auxiliary system was provided and the program rolled along.

LAWRENCE SPEAKS

Miss Alpern told the assemblage she has "many organized enemies and many unorganized friends."

She was followed shortly by Gov. Lawrence, who delivered a 29-minute address that turned the heat on Republicans.

"The state chairman (Otis Morse), believes—and I accept his judgement—that when the books for this election are closed, we will have a Democratic majority of more than 150,000 registered voters in Pennsylvania," said Lawrence.

The governor heaped praise on the 1961 legislature for approving his proposed $995 million general fund budget and revenue programs to pay for it. Wednesday he reported revenue estimates for the year indicated a balanced budget by the end of the fiscal year next July.

CRITICIZED REPUBLICANS

But—as expected—he was critical of republican legislative activity.

"The Republicans were united, as solid as a rock, in their opposition to a revenue measure for education," said Lawrence, adding:

"When it came to a choice between education and big money, the Republican decision was firmly set. They voted for big money."

He referred to his proposed two per cent tax on dividends, royalties and capital gains. It was supposed to produce $23 million to finance education improvements.

Lawrence summed up: "It will be another great year for the Democratic Party—a herald and forecast of greater victories still in the critical years to come."

Alfred LeVan Dies Suddenly
3 P.M. Today: Alfred R. LeVan, 64, well known local plumbing contractor and a former president of the borough council, died Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home from a coronary occlusion. He had been confined to his bed about a week and became seriously ill Sunday morning.

A native of Mauch Chunk and son of the late John S. and Lillie Regaff LeVan, the deceased resided in Philadelphia before coming to Gettysburg 39 years ago. He was a plumbing contractor during his residence here. Mr. LeVan was a member of St. James Lutheran church, the Men's Bible class and the IOOF of Gettysburg. He served a term as a member of the borough council and was also the council president.

Surviving are his widow, the former Myrtle Cullison; two children, Leroy, Gettysburg R. 1, and Suzanne, at home; three grandchildren: one stepdaughter, Mrs. Wilbur Knox, Gettysburg; one brother, Harry, Drexel Hill, and one sister, Mrs. Eva Carr, Palmyra, N. J.

Local Couple Weds Saturday
At St. James: St. James Lutheran Church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Miss Doris Jane Rothaupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rothaupt, Gettysburg R. D., to George Francis Fream, son of Mrs. Edgar L. Saunders and the late Walter Fream. The double ring ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by their pastor, the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, in a setting of palms and white gladioli.

The bride, escorted by her brother-in-law, Richard W. Tawney, was attired in a gown of white tulle trimmed with Venice lace and made with a fitted bodice, finished with a yoke and standing collar of lace, cap sleeves with matching mitts and a full skirt. Her veil of tulle fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white chrysanthemums with an orchid center and ivy streamers. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Local Girl Is Wed Saturday in New Jersey: Miss Mary Clare Myers, daughter of Mrs. Grace Myers, Chambersburg Street, and Gerald Russomanno, of Newark, N. J., were married at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at a nuptial mass in St. Leo's Catholic Church, Irvington, N. J.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, George F. Eberhart, Eberhart apartments, wore a gown of original design by Carolyn Lardiere, of Newark.

UNLIMITED RESOURCES

The one thing that seems to stamp every human being as a divine product is the fact that God never put any limit to what any human being might be or become.

Your resources are unlimited! The history of mankind is the story of those who didn't know what was in them.

Patience, practice, perpetual faith have brought thousands upon thousands up from mediocrity and placed them among the immortals.

If you think you are making little progress and if you are discouraged over your place in the world, just bear in mind that thousands with less ability than you possess have risen to dizzy heights simply because they would not stay down. They tapped and drew upon their resources and took the chance.

It is a safe fact to assume that the man and woman doesn't exist who could not be better and bigger than they are.

No one knows what kind of ability one has until one has tested oneself over and over again and time and time again.

Most of us stumble upon our success. We are creatures of bends. If you can follow out just one of these bends you are bound to be somebody worth having around. Do the thing you would like to do. Then, for good training, do many things that you do not like to do. Many a man has done the unpleasant and irksome task and found his happy work wrapped up inside.

The more you draw upon your resources the more you add to them.

HOW TO SEE A BASEBALL GAME

I've never forgotten the joy I had when I was a lad
And a man, full grown, played the friend to me!
Would that every boy had such a friend as he!
For many a day, when the summer came,
He'd take me out to the baseball game.

He gave me the thrill of the game complete,
A grand stand seat,
And all the popcorn that I could eat;
Introduced me to men that I longed to meet,
Taught me the rules and the player's names,
And that was the way to see baseball games.

Oh man, when you go with that merry throng
Take a boy along!
Talk with him, walk with him, let him share
In the glorious thrill of the game out there,
And down to the end of your life you'll be
That small boy's happiest memory.

For there's nothing a boy likes better than
To be chum to a man!
And I'll say for the friend who was good to me,
That never a baseball game I see
But I think of him and his kindly ways
When I was a boy in those early days.

FALL SPECIALS ON TELEVISION BEGIN SUNDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—On this, the eve of television's 1961-62 season, the prospects of a bright, entertaining few months are not quite as dim as they may occasionally seem.

The kickoff comes tonight with NBC's "International Show Time" (7:30-8:30 Eastern Daylight Time) and by mid-October most of the 34 new regular "bread and butter" shows will have had their premiere performances. While many of them will be carbon copies of established shows, others hold considerable promise.

That is particularly true in the area of comedy. Among the new entries will be NBC's "Hazel" series, with Shirley Booth using her considerable comedic skills. There is also a new series fashioned by Nat Hiken of "Bilko," but based on a pair of prowl car cops instead of soldiers. Another NBC entry is "Car 54, Where Are You?"

BERG AND HARDWICKE

Then there is "Mrs. G. Goes to College" on CBS, which automatically is important because of the presence of Gertrude Berg and Cedric Hardwicke, two of the theater's most talented performers.

In the area of action-adventure, we can look for an abundance of hard-hitting, realistic shows which are well produced if not exactly fresh in concept. Among them are NBC's "Cain's Hundred" and "8th Precinct"; CBS' "The Investigators" and "The Defenders," and ABC's "The New Breed" and "Target: The Corruptors."

ABC and NBC will fight the battle of hospitals with two doctor series: "Ben Casey" and "Dr. Kildare," but if they strike it rich in terms of big audiences, they may start a trend to medical shows.

COWBOYS MISSING
Finally, there will be a lot of cowboys and horses missing from the home screens. And there's always a chance, as time goes on, that we'll actually miss the clip-clop.

Recommended viewing over the weekend: "Up-Date," premiere Saturday, NBC, 12-12:30 p.m., special news roundup for teen-agers; "Follow The Sun," premiere Sunday, ABC, 7:30-8:30 p.m., new action-adventure series set in the Pacific; "Car 54, Where Are You?" premiere Sunday, NBC, 8:30-9 p.m., new comedy series; "Show Of The Week," premiere Sunday, NBC, 10-11 p.m., anthology series starting with a documentary on American humor with George Burns as host.

3 FUGITIVES SOUGHT AFTER 3 ROBBERIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—A manhunt for three escaped prisoners from Maryland centered in the south-central Pennsylvania area today following a series of rapid-fire service station holdups in Harrisburg.

Pennsylvania state police said that three bandits, fitting the descriptions of the escaped prisoners, hit three service stations here in the span of 41 minutes Friday night and made off with $512 in cash.

The bandits were believed to have been William R. Loudermilk, 21; Joseph M. Mace, 23; and Eugene Williamson, 21—all who made a dash for freedom Friday while being transferred from the Baltimore County building to the county jail at Towson, Md.

The trio grabbed $400 at one service station, $80 at another and $32 from a third, officers said. One of the men, armed with a revolver, pistol whipped attendant Edward J. Klinger who was on duty at the station where $80 was taken.

OVERPOWERED WOMAN

Klinger and the other service station attendants said the three men had a car.

Maryland authorities said that Loudermilk, Mace and Williamson made their get-away while a deputy sheriff was escorting a group of 15 prisoners back to the jail.

The three then overpowered an elderly woman motorist and sped off in her car.

The auto was found abandoned on the Baltimore-Harrisburg Expressway near the Pennsylvania-Maryland state line. However, another car was stolen a short time later.

The three escapees were scheduled to go on trial on burglary charges Friday, but the trial was postponed because of the illness of the defense lawyer.

Two other prisoners also attempted to escape. But when the deputy sheriff fired warning shots, they stopped.

Turnpike Must Build Barriers

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence signed into law Thursday a measure requiring the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to build and maintain a total of 150 miles of medial barriers on the toll road.

Shortly after the new bill was signed, turnpike officials announced that they have already erected a total of 130 miles of medial barriers.

Barriers will be erected along another 25 miles of the turnpike starting next spring, Franklin V. Summers, turnpike operations officer, added.

He said turnpike engineers are constantly surveying the road to learn where they are most needed.

Rash Of Fumbles Stops Warriors Who Lose 12-0 Battle At Biglerville

A recovered fumble in the end zone, two severe penalties and a strong ground attack enabled Biglerville to defeat Gettysburg High's Warriors 12-0 in a closely played grid contest Friday evening on Musselman's Memorial Field at Biglerville. A capacity crowd of more than 3,000 attended the bitterly waged scrap.

Biglerville, in winning its second straight game, handed Gettysburg its 13th straight defeat over the last three years, thus setting a record for consecutive losses by the local griders.

The two-evenly matched squads played to a scoreless standstill in the first half but about midway through the third period, Canners' center Carl Hess pounced on Jim McClellan's fumble on the Warrior's 44. Five plays saw Biglerville move to the Warriors' 32. Here Canner quarterback Gary Wright faded deep and lobbed a screen pass to his fullback, Bill Slaybaugh, for an 18-yard gain.

MICKY RECOVERS

After a running play showed no gain, a quick opener resulted in a Canner fumble. In the confusion, the pigskin was kicked into the end zone where 25-pound tackle Perry Mickey showed two Warriors how to recover a fumble for a touchdown. Gary Fair's plunge for the point fell short.

The Canners put the lid on the jar on a drive that also started midway in the fourth quarter following Tom Duane's fumble on the Canners' 44. A personal foul penalty, half the distance to the goal line, sent Biglerville to the Warriors' 38. A ground play netted three yards and again the Warriors were penalized to the 25-yard line. Four running plays put the ball on the 7. Here Wright rolled out to the left, kept the ball and drove the remaining yards to put Biglerville on the score board again, making it 12-0. Wilson Harmon's quick opener fell short and the scoring was completed for the evening.

Three fumbles by each team in the first half hurt both squads and averted any scoring. Paul Plank, Gettysburg's all-around man, fumbled the kickoff after a fine return to his 39. Here Biglerville combined three running plays and a Wright-to-Fair pass put the ball on the 8, but on the ensuing play, Slaybaugh fumbled and Bob Beeler fell on the ball for the Warriors.

After Gettysburg was forced to punt, Biglerville again combined four running plays and a jump pass to put the ball on the seven. An offside penalty, two running plays that netted four yards and an incomplete pass gave the ball to Gettysburg on downs.

EXCHANGE BOBBLES

Duane fumbled on the ensuing play and Mickey made another recovery, this one on the 19. But four plays later, a Biglerville back returned the fumble when hit by Beeler.

At this point, Gettysburg put together its only real drive of the evening, picking up three first downs which landed them on the Canners' 38. But Duane fumbled again on a rollout play to kill the threat.

Biglerville took over and moved on the ground down to the Warriors' nine where the Canners' third fumble stopped any potential threat.

Gettysburg had the ball offensively only 10 times during the evening. They punted twice, had control of the pigskin when the half and game ended, and fumbled the ball away six other times, including the opening kickoff. When they were able to hold onto the slippery football, they moved rather effectively in running up 121 yards on the ground.

The game itself was give and take by both teams, with fumbles playing an important factor in holding the score down. The longest play of the tilt was the 18-yard screen pass by Biglerville, while Slaybaugh did get off a 46-yard punt in the fourth quarter to bring the "o-o-s" from the crowd.

TEMPERS FLARE

Defensively, both schools played brilliantly, and tempers flared in the second half. Biglerville seemed to run at will off the right side of the Warriors' line toward the end of the first half until Coach Don Young straightened out his tackle.

Gettysburg hopes to get back on the winning track next Friday when they entertain Bermudian Springs at Kurtz field. Biglerville, confident after their second win in a row this season, will journey to Waynesboro for a Saturday evening game.

Biglerville thus takes a 2-0 mark in the two-year series with Gettysburg that began last year.

Gettysburg at Chambersburg.

Chambersburg, pre-season favorite to cop the last South Penn Conference football championship, rolled to an easy 41-6 decision over Hanover Friday evening on the winner's field.

Carl Watson, quarterback, and Dick Nye, halfback, each tallied a pair of touchdowns for the big Trojan outfit. Pete Rhodes scored for Hanover on a 42-yard pass play.

Norristown's Bishop Kenrick and Beaver Falls, two of Pennsylvania's top scholastic football powers in 1960, stormed to easy victories Friday night, serving early notice that once again they will have to be reckoned with.

Bishop Kenrick posted its second triumph of the season and its 17th in a row, whipping a scrappy Reading Central Catholic eleven 18-0.

The victory pushed Bishop Kenrick into a deadlock with Clifton Heights as the teams holding the second longest winning streaks in the state.

Wyomissing, which kicks off its season tonight against Schwenksville, has 21 victories.

Clifton Heights doesn't open its season until the end of this month.

CHAMPS WIN AGAIN

Beaver Falls, which powered its way to a 9-0 record and the WPIAL-Class AA title last year, suspended its first conference foe, Sharon, 12-0. The defending champs opened the season last week with a 27-14 triumph over Beaver County rival New Brighton.

In one of the biggest upsets of the night, Hazleton handed Berwick its second straight loss, wallowing the Bulldogs 31-0. Berwick had won three titles last year, including the championship of the sprawling East Penn Conference.

In another significant conference contest, Chief Logan downed darkhorse State College 34-12, to grab off an early lead in the race for the West Penn championship.

And the big game in the South-Central Pennsylvania area found Chambersburg downing Hanover 41-6 in a nonconference clash.

In other important contests: Lock Haven whipped Bald Eagle 47-7. Lewistown squeezed by Bloomsburg 14-12. Altoona dumped Windber 32-25.

Dodger's Koufax Breaks Strikeout Mark; Spahn Fails In Bid For 20th

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Swift southpaw Sandy Koufax has broken a 50-year-old strikeout record, continued Warren Spahn's 12-year-old jinx and maintained the Los Angeles Dodgers' chances of catching the front-running Cincinnati Reds in the National League pennant battle.

Koufax set the Milwaukee Braves down on five hits Friday night, striking out 10 en route to an 11-2 victory that pushed the second-place Dodgers within 4½ games of the Reds, who were idle for the second night in succession.

The 10 strikeouts gave Koufax 243 for the year—the most ever achieved by a left-hander in modern NL history. Rube Marquard, who fanned 237 for the New York Giants in 1911, held the previous record.

LOST 12 TO DODGERS

Spahn, meanwhile, met his usual fate against the Dodgers on the road, losing for the 12th consecutive time since he last beat the then Brooklynites in their home park in 1948. The 40-year-old Milwaukee ace was seeking victory No. 20 for the sixth year in a row and the 12th time in his career.

Instead, he lasted less than two innings, his string of 10 straight complete game victories came to an end and the Braves dropped into fourth place behind San Francisco. The Giants whipped the Chicago Cubs 5-1 in the only other NL game scheduled.

Koufax, who had lost six straight at the Coliseum and had not won at home since June 11, gave up a leadoff homer to John Omerout in the first, allowed an other run to cross in the inning on a doubleplay, then closed the door for his 16th victory against 11 defeats.

SCORES & RUNS

Spahn (1913) got past the first 123, but Frank Howard opened the second inning with a liner over the fence.

NEW YORK (AP)—The directors of the Eastern Baseball League are to meet today for a discussion of adding two teams to the league roster for the 1962 season.

Representatives from York and Allentown, Pa., Elmira, N.Y., and New Haven, Conn., are expected to attend, league President Rankin Johnson said.

All at one time or another were members of the league which now numbers only six teams, Williamsport, Reading, Johnstown and Lancaster, all in Pennsylvania, Binghamton, N.Y., and Springfield Mass.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Iowa (AP)—Howard Kauwe, 17, of Hilo, Hawaii, freshman at Iowa Wesleyan University, collapsed during football practice Thursday and died about two hours later.

University officials said the youth, a guard, suffered a head injury but cause of death would not be known until after an autopsy.

NICKLAUS AND WYSONG PLAY GOLF FINALS

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Power-hitting Jack Nicklaus, a veteran at 21, battled for his second National Amateur golf championship today against Texan Dudley Wysong, one year older but far less experienced.

Wysong expected to see the Nicklaus tee shots in front of his, but it didn't seem to bother the slim 170-pounder from McKinney, Tex., who picked up valuable tips from another Texan—the great Byron Nelson.

"I'm going to play this course with my game and let him play the course with his game," Wysong said before teeing off for the 36-hole finals over the Pebble Beach layout.

WON HANDILY

Nicklaus, who won the amateur title in 1959 and currently holds the collegiate crown representing Ohio State, overwhelmed Sonny Methvin of Little Rock, Ark., 9 and 8 in their semifinal scheduled for 36 holes Friday.

It took Wysong the full distance to bounce the only remaining foreign entry, Ireland's Joe Carr, by a 2-up margin despite Dud's 5-up margin after 18 holes. Carr simply wouldn't give up and Wysong's morning-hot putter cooled in a fog-shrouded afternoon.

Jack was 14 strokes under par for the 104 holes he has played in this event. Wysong was 14-over-par for 113 holes.

WYSONG NEW GOLFER

While Nicklaus had won several major titles and represented the United States on the Walker Cup team, Wysong wasn't even among those mentioned in preview stories of these national championships.

He told newsmen he has been practicing daily to get into shape for the title bid and that through the past six years Nelson has been giving him helpful tips as a friend of the family.

THREE WALKS BALK SPAHN'S BID FOR RECORD

NFL TO OPEN 42ND SEASON ON SUNDAY

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Outside and down the long tunnel leading to the ball field the crowd was wild as the Dodgers piled up a big lead over the Milwaukee Braves Friday night.

But back in the Milwaukee dressing room it was like a tomb—quiet, bare and cool.

There were only two persons in the place. One, half-bare and understandably cool, was Warren Spahn.

For just a short time before this incomparable pitcher, at 40 still one of the greatest left-handers of all time, had failed in his bid for his 20th win of the year.

JINXED BY SPELL

And, while he probably won't admit it, a Dodger spell still hovers over this master of the mound.

Spahn still has time this season to hit No. 20 and break his own record as a consistent 20-game winner. He has done it 11 times.

A rather hesitant visitor to the dressing room explained he had come to the game especially hoping to see him record this particular milestone.

"That's why I came here, too," retorted Spahn.

Spahn went into the game with 10 straight victories behind him. He retired the Dodgers in order in the first inning.

FATAL SECOND

Then came the second inning. The first man up, Frank Howard, hit a home run.

Then, in succession, Spahn walked Gil Hodges, Daryl Spencer and Charlie Neal.

Up came catcher Norm Sherry. His bloop single scored two runners. That was all for Spahn.

The dressing room visitor suggested that Spahn's pitch to Howard looked like a good one. Spahn abruptly disagreed. "No, it was a bad pitch, a high change-up," he said.

"I was just wild. I can't understand why I was so wild. That's what bothers me."

So, the wonderful Warren Spahn will have to wait another day for No. 20.

Penn State Offers Course To Help Home Landscapers

FRANK S. ZETTL
Adams County Farm Agent

Home landscaping can be done in autumn. Trees and shrubs set out during early fall become well established by winter and begin vigorous growth in early spring.

But landscaping for attractive display and effective placing of well chosen plants requires some thought and planning. And planting a five-dollar tree in a two-bit hole is bad gardening.

To help homeowners do good landscaping Penn State University offers courses which can be studied by correspondence. "Landscape Planning For Small Properties" deals with the scores of problems involved in selection of home sites, placement of buildings, walks, drives and steps.

COURSES OFFERED

"Trees For the Home Grounds" and "Shrubs For the Home Grounds" are companion courses to "Landscape Planning For Small Properties." They are descriptive courses presenting about 200 woody plants suitable for landscaping in Pennsylvania.

You're invited to enroll in these three courses by writing to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa. Include your name and address and registration fee of $6.25. Make checks payable to the Pennsylvania State University.

Lessons are sent to you promptly, prepaid. Studying can be at your convenience, because there's no time limit on completion.

CONTROL LAWN CLOVER

Clover is regarded by many as a serious weed pest in turfgrass areas. It is soft and slippery to walk on, it grows in patches that break up the continuity of the lawn and its persistence, especially in cold weather, is unpredictable.

The use of 2,4,5-T or 2,4,5-TP (silvex) is recommended as suitable for clover control. These materials are available commercially in several concentrations, so follow the manufacturer's suggested application rate. A second treatment at an interval of approximately two to three weeks may be necessary to give complete clover control. Keep chemicals away from desirable plants such as shrubs, flowers and vegetables.

If the lawn is infested with broadleaf weeds such as dandelion and plantain, the 2,4,5-T can be used to control them, too.

FERTILIZE LAWN

Although it is preferable to fertilize the lawn in late August or early September, there are still many days of good grass growing weather before us and the lawn can benefit by fertilization now.

Fertilize lawns with a complete fertilizer which contains nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. For maximum results, a fertilizer having approximately a 2-1-1 ratio such as a 10-5-5, 10-6-4, 12-6-6 or similar may be used. In addition, this fertilizer should contain at least one-half of the total nitrogen content in a slowly available form such as a natural organic nitrogen carrier or a urea-form compound. Apply this material to the lawn at a rate of 20 to 30 pounds per 1,000 square feet.

All fertilizers may burn if improperly applied. Apply fertilizer to the lawn only when the grass leaves are dry. Do not apply fertilizer during the morning or evening hours at this time of year because dew on the grass may cause severe burning. After fertilizer has been applied, it is best to thoroughly water the area to wash it into the soil surface.

OK SOIL PROJECT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee Thursday approved a $1,504,000 soil conservation project for Broadhead Creek at Stroudsburg, Pa. The project is expected to provide flood control benefits in an area where 1955 floods took a high toll of lives and property. The House Agriculture Committee approved the measure July 24. No further action is needed.

SAYS ILLS ARE IN HEARTS OF HUMAN BEINGS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"The world's problems are in the hearts of men," Evangelist Billy Graham told an estimated crowd of 5,000 in Philadelphia Stadium Thursday night.

The Rev. Dr. Graham, wearing a light raincoat over a blue suit, told his audience to look into its hearts for signs of moral infection.

"Spiritual diseases of the heart can be just as fatal as those of a physical nature," he said. "When God looks at man," said Dr. Graham, "He looks not at his social status, the color of his skin, or the clothes he wears. He looks into a man's heart. How does your heart look to God?"

DEVIL THROUGH WEEK

"The sin of America is serving the church on Sunday while living like a devil throughout the rest of the week," Jesus says, "Woe unto you hypocrites."

Graham apparently changed his sermon text following the appearance of Charles Pitts, a Toronto Canada, construction firm owner. Pitts told the audience:

"I was dead spiritually. I didn't know this. I didn't know a man could be made a good man and yet be dead spiritually. At the last Billy Graham meeting in Toronto, I went forward and changed my heart and life."

As his substituted text, Dr. Graham took Proverbs 23:7: "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he."

An estimated 317 persons made decisions for Christ.

HITLER INSANE

"We say to ourselves that Khrushchev would have to be insane to plunge us into war," Dr. Graham said. "Khrushchev has the power, but more importantly, we have to remember that the heart is deceitful; and sin in a heart will actually drive a man insane. 'It made Hitler mad. And we can not trust what the sin in

Family Pioneered Carrillo's Plot

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Leo Carrillo was buried Thursday in the earth his family pioneered. Relatives, friends and unknown fans surrounded a specially-made California redwood casket in Woodlawn Cemetery as interment rites were conducted for the 81-year-old movie and television star.

"The California he loved will cherish his memory," said The Rt. Rev. Raymond J. O'Flaherty at an earlier requiem mass.

Carrillo died Sunday of cancer. He was a descendant of the rancheros who pioneered California in Spanish-Mexican days.

Jobless Claims Are Slowly Dropping

HARRISBURG (AP)—The total number of unemployment compensation claims dropped in Pennsylvania during the week ended Sept. 8 despite a substantial jump in new claims.

The state's Bureau of Employment Security reported Thursday that continued claims for the week were 175,007 compared with 179,513 the week before and 185,902 in the same period a year ago. However, new claims jumped to 26,622, an increase of 1,284 over the previous week, the bureau added.

A. Allen Sulcove, secretary of labor and industry, attributed the rise in new claims to temporary layoffs in apparel, stone-clay-glass, bituminous mining, food processing, leather and textile industries.

Khrushchev's heart may do. Earlier at a noon rally in Reynburn Plaza in Center City, Dr. Graham addressed an estimated crowd of 5,500 persons.

He said the nation faces a crisis—"greater than any in its history, total annihilation."

He said that if Americans would turn to God He would hear the appeal and "spare our nation and bring peace in our time."

"The greatest thing you could do," Dr. Graham told the audience, "would be to give your life to God, start living a Christian life and go to church."

KENNEDY'S JET CARRIES ALL HITCHHIKERS

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—By this time, most summer commuters have called it a season but not President Kennedy and his jet plane weekend special to Cape Cod.

For the 12th weekend in a row, the President is expected to step aboard a huge $5½ million Air Force jet today to leave muggy Washington, still caught in summer heat, for the cooling breezes of Hyannis Port, Mass.

And, along with him will go those members of his personal and official family who want a hitch to the shores of Cape Cod. The presidential commuter special is obviously the best and fastest way to travel from the Capital to Cape Cod these days.

POTENTIAL HITCHHIKERS

With so many Harvard and Massachusetts men in his official retinue, there are many potential hitchhikers.

Friends, children and business officials have climbed aboard the presidential plane for playgrounds of the Cape this summer.

Would-be passengers simply get reservations through Kennedy's secretary, Evelyn Lincoln, or his special assistant, Kenneth O'Donnell. The presidential military aide, Maj. Gen. Chester V. Clifton, gives them "space available" priority.

Government officials, congressmen, staff members, friends and family all ride free. "We don't charge them," explains assistant White House Press Secretary Andrew Hatcher. "The plane goes up anyway—it's just a question of whether we have room."

NO FIGURES RELEASED

No figures have been made public on how much the plane trips cost the taxpayers. But a couple of years ago the Air Force said the hourly operation cost of such a jet plane was $270.86, which did not include depreciation or maintenance.

The flight rivals the best of today's expensive air travel. Soft music is waited through the air conditioned compartments.

The President relaxes in a private forward compartment with comfortable chairs, lounges and felt-covered tables.

SOMETIMES BREAKFAST

Stewards serve afternoon coffee and soft drinks, chewing gum, candy and snacks. The President usually prefers soup or munches an apple en route. On the way home, usually Monday morning, a light breakfast of fruit juice, sweet rolls and coffee is substituted on the menu.

In the rear section, the President's VIP hitchhikers get luxury accommodations.

The President's plane seats 36 passengers. A commercial plane of the same size packs in about 100.

Young Student First To Be Hit By Foreign Spending Ban

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It was ironic that Brian Thompson of Pittsburgh should be one of the first Americans affected by the new customs regulations, designed to cut American spending abroad.

Instead of $500, the rules now say, you may bring in only $100 worth of foreign-purchased goods free of duty — and that amount only once in 31 days. Also, you must be gone at least 48 hours to qualify for any duty-free imports.

While smartly dressed passengers left the liner United States early this week, Thompson, 20, was detained by a customs inspector. Near him on the pier were his knapsack, bedroll, skis and small suitcase. These were all that he took back from a year of student life in Munich.

IS ASSESSED $15

In his luggage was a camera bought overseas. The skis, now slightly worn, were purchased in Germany. This put Thompson above the $100 limit. He was assessed $15.

"That leaves me $3 to get to Pittsburgh," he said. "I planned to hitchhike anyway."

The object of the new restrictions, said President Kennedy, is to reduce America's balance of payments deficit, which last year reached $3.8 billion. The restrictions became effective Sept. 9. Contributing about $2 billion to the total were the 1,634,000 U.S. residents who traveled abroad, and the millions who went to Canada and Mexico. Treasury officials hope to cut $150 million from the figure.

WOULD LOWER RESERVES

The deficit simply means that if foreign governments were to demand American currency be converted into gold, our reserves would be lowered. The less gold the less money in circulation.

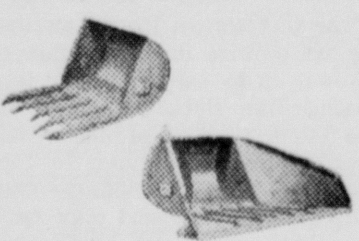

Most American tourists never bring back more than $100 in foreign purchases.

More so than any other group, the restrictions appear aimed at the deluxe travelers, who purchase automobiles, furniture and other expensive items.

Twins Born In Different States

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Joseph McIntyre, the mother of twin boys who were born in different states, explained today how the oddity occurred.

The twins were born about a half an hour apart last March 28 but the matter didn't come to light until Thursday when it was announced by the Pennsylvania Department of Health that the birth certificate of Kevin McIntyre will be filed in Harrisburg, Pa., and that of his brother, Thomas, in Trenton, the New Jersey state capital.

Recalling the incident today, Mrs. McIntyre related that an ambulance began taking her to Philadelphia Osteopathic Hospital from her home. To avoid traffic, she said, the driver headed for the Burlington-Bristol Bridge and planned to follow Route 130 in New Jersey and cross into Philadelphia at a southern span.

However, Kevin arrived at the toll booth of the Burlington Bridge in Pennsylvania. Resuming the trip, the ambulance got as far as the Gloucester approach to the Walt Whitman Bridge when Thomas was born—in New Jersey.

Baking biscuits? Cut out and brush tops with milk or cream, then sprinkle with caraway seed. Serve with sliced ham and a cooked vegetable salad.

Coast-To-Coast On TV

FROM WEEKLY TELEVISION

DIGEST: 90% of all U. S. homes now have at least one TV set. One out of every eight homes has more than one TV set . . . it appears that TV's western trend is over. Only about a dozen that-a-way series are scheduled for the networks next season . . . "The Maltese Falcon," said to be one of the greatest motion pictures ever made, may be the basis for an MGM-TV series . . . It is reported that Jack Benny received $2.5 million in MCA stock as payment for control of his company, J & M Productions. J & M owns such shows as "Checkmate," "Holiday Lodge," "Jack Benny Show" films, and others . . . Maureen O'Hara's 17-year-old daughter, Bronwyn Fitzsimons, has signed a Warner Brothers contract. The same studio has also given an acting contract to Ginger Drysdale, wife of the Los Angeles Dodgers pitcher.

FROM HOLLYWOOD REPORTER:

Jack Paar, who seldom guest-stars, will make an appearance on Joey Bishop's new series . . . The big trend in TV next season will be towards animation. At least eight animated series will be showing in prime time on the networks . . . Dick Clark and his "Caravan" will tour in 22 cities next fall . . . Bob Hope is trying to get one sponsor for his TV shows next season, instead of having multiple sponsors split the bill . . . Sid Caesar signed for four appearances on the Ed Sullivan Show next fall . . . Peggy Lee has signed to star in one TV special per year, until 1964, on British TV.

"LAWMAN" BEGINS FOURTH SEASON: With John Russell, Peter Brown and Peggie Castle continuing in their starring roles of Marshal Dan Troop, Bird Cage Saloon proprietress Lily Merrill and deputy Johnny McKay, "Lawman" will begin its fourth television year on Sunday, Sept. 17, ABC-TV, 8:30-9:00 p.m. EDT.

"Trapped," the opening episode of the new season, features Peter Brack as Hale Connors, a stranger in town for an electrifying purpose.

POLLY BERGEN DOESN'T WANT TO BE GRANDMA—YET: Polly Bergen turned down an offer to star in the motion picture "Mr. Hobbs Takes A Vacation," because she felt she was "not quite right" for the part. She was to have portrayed a grandmother. Says Polly: "At the age of 31 I'm too young to play a grandmother, makeup or no makeup."

Bob Keeshan—"Captain Kangaroo"

By PAUL GERARD

STARTING October 2, four to five million pre-school age television viewers and their parents will be 15 minutes happier and a quarter of an hour better informed.

Bob Keeshan's "Captain Kangaroo" will be seen Mondays through Fridays from 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. on CBS-TV. This 15-minute extension of the program is in itself a small tribute to Bob Keeshan who created the program six years ago and has since won many honors in the field of children programs including the George Foster Peabody Award.

The genial, gentle-mannered "Captain Kangaroo" has as loyal a following of young television as can be found anywhere.

TWO-WAY STREET

But loyalty is a two-way street. Keeshan has always given much thought to the content of his program. He not only wants to present a good show, but a good show that is good for his viewers. This he has done without question.

We are guided by two basic thoughts," Mr. Keeshan says, "What do our children enjoy? And what as parents do we want our children exposed to?"

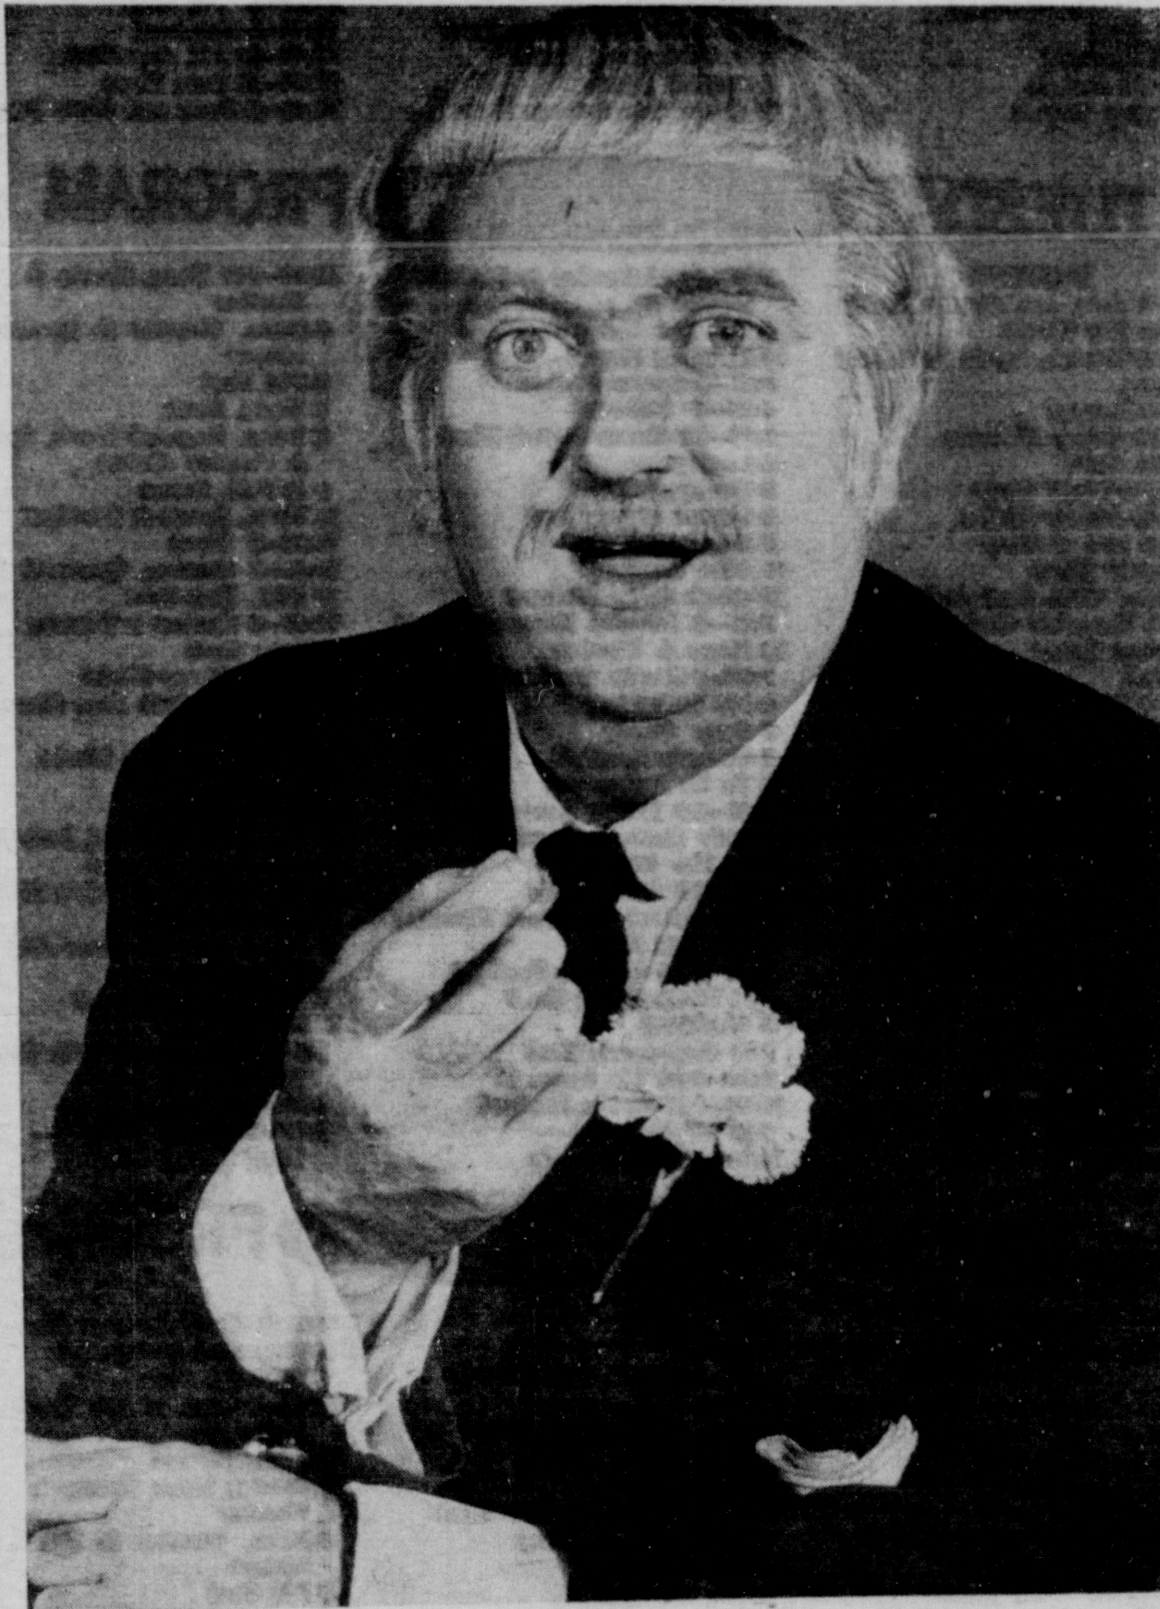

"We talk the same language as the children do," he continued. "We meet them in a never-never land where they find reality. We give them fantasy and we give them education—learning things about the world they are growing up in—all as part of a simple, wonderful hour of entertainment that happens to carry with it simple lessons in manners, safety and bits of knowledge children are curious about. There'll be no slapstick, no terror, no matter how innocently such things can be presented. These are gentle adventures for children—we can't think of any better words to describe what we are doing."

WANTS PARENTS' HELP

While Keeshan is alert to the wholesome part television can play in child guidance and development, he doesn't see his own role as that of a baby sitter. In the "Playtime" segment of his broadcasts, especially, where his young viewers are taught to make cut-out toys with scissors and paper, he expects many parents to share the experience with their children.

"Some parents are delinquent in this respect," he says. "I appreciate the fact that we are the best baby sitter they have, but we hope we are performing more of a function than that. We don't want television to take all the time away from the parent-child relationship."

By the simplest of barometers, however—fan mail and phone calls from adults speaking on behalf of their pre-school children—it is obvious to Keeshan that a sizable segment of his audience is composed of parents who watch along with their children.

SEEK KNOWLEDGE

Bob Keeshan takes it for granted that his young viewers have a thirst for knowledge and an amazing capacity for absorbing information presented to them in an entertaining manner.

"We are not, in the ordinary sense, striving to teach children," says Keeshan. "We prefer to inform them by stimulating their interests in the world around them."

The average child, according to Keeshan, will grasp a subject quickly if he can relate it to sights, sounds and objects he has already encountered in his own little world. Thus, when the program showed a film of the St. Lawrence Seaway with its intricate system of locks and canals, a simple explanation was made by comparing the sea-level to a flight of stairs—thereby bringing them into the realm of the child's every-day experiences.

SEE VOTING MACHINE

During the recent Presidential campaign, the boys and girls were shown a model of a voting machine and acquainted with the machine's operation.

In explaining the manufacture and use of plastic materials, the captain had some raw ingredients on hand, as well as a small press with which he made a toy cow and some soldiers by applying heat and pressure.

To clarify the functions of the United Nations, Captain Kangaroo explained to his young viewers that nations, like children, can have differences, and sometimes get into fights. This can be avoided, he pointed out, by getting together and talking things over calmly and sensibly.

Charts, photographs, films and music play an important part on the "Captain Kangaroo" broadcasts. When the role of the President in government was up for discussion, a recording of the song "The President on the Dollar" proved a lively way to stimulate interest in the topic. A film showing a day in the life of a U. S. congressman provided a sight-and-sound acquaintance with another branch of the government.

PROGRAM'S FUTURE

As to the future of the program, Bob Keeshan's own speculations are expressed thus: "Each morning as we prepare for another visit to the 'Treasure House,' I think to myself, this is for me—as long as Junior and his sister want to tune us in."

As far as Junior and his sister and their parents are concerned, Bob, as long as you maintain the high standards of the program and continue to present them with the warmth and gentleness that is Captain Kangaroo's, there will be no question about their "tuning in."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By MARSHALL TUCKEY

Don't be afraid to try foreign dishes. There is nothing mysterious about them; remember they are only foreign to us. Many of the ingredients are old familiar ones you have been using for years, just combined differently, and inexpensive cuts of meats can be used in delicious dishes. They can be prepared in advance of your dinner party.

Any Questions?

By MIKE ALBER

Q. Does Gardner McKay employ a stand-in for his acrobatic feats in "Adventures in Paradise"? — C. C.

A. No Gardner does all those athletic gyrations himself.

Q. Will "Angel" be on the air next season? — L. T.

A. The series was not renewed.

Q. Is the Ted Mills who married Genevieve the same one who used to produce "Garraway at Large" in Chicago? — G. N.

A. Yes.

Q. Will Jackie Gleason make another series of "The Honey-mooners"? — R. K.

A. There has been talk about it, but nothing is definite.

Q. When will "The $64 Question" return to the air? — N. M.

A. That's the $64 question.

TEN YEARS AGO

Rosemary Clooney was the vocalist on the Robert Q. Lewis Show . . . "Truth or Consequences" was broadcast from the aircraft carrier "Valley Forge" . . . Morey Amsterdam was a guest on "This Is Show Business" . . . Burl Ives recorded a bevy of Christmas tunes for Columbia . . . Walt Disney presented "Alice in Wonderland" on TV . . . The top ten TV shows were Texaco Star Theater, Fireside Theater, Godfrey Talent Scouts, Toast of the Town, Cactus Jim, Man Against Crime, Mama, Philco Theater, Lights Out and Your Show of Shows.

Quote from Sam Peeples, creator and producer of "Tall Man," the western about Billy the Kid starring Barry Sullivan and Clu Gulager on NBC-TV Saturday nights: "If I have any philosophy for success — it is write — and cooperate. Be prepared to adapt to any new kind of television story. Don't be afraid to try something new and different — and above all, listen to the men who make and sell your stories. They know what the public wants — and it is my heartfelt belief that a writer should be prepared to deliver exactly that."

Coast To Coast On Television

"ABC FINAL REPORT"—Network television's first weekday late-night newscast—will debut on the ABC television network Monday, Oct. 2 (11-11:15 p.m., EDT), it was announced by James C. Hagerty, ABC vice president in charge of news, special events and public affairs.

"With the late-breaking news in Washington and with the time differential around the world in a period of fast-breaking international stories," said Mr. Hagerty, "the six or seven p.m. report is not adequate as a television network's final program."

"ABC Final Report" will wrap up the day's news utilizing the reporters—at home and abroad—who have covered the story throughout the day for an analysis of the day's events and significance. The later hour for the network program," Mr. Hagerty added, "will also enable viewers to see film and tape of events abroad that they otherwise might not see until the next morning or early the next evening."

LAWRENCE WELK SHOW: The "new look" of ABC-TV's "The Lawrence Welk Show" will be further accented in the future by the regular appearance of dancers Barbara Boylan and Bob Burgess, the youthful Long Beach, Calif., State College students who have been frequent guests on the Saturday night telecasts, it was announced by the champagne music maker.

The pair emerged as winners, last March 24, of a nine-week "Calcutta" dance contest conducted by Welk at a West Coast ballroom. Following this, they were featured in a number of appearances on the ABC-TV musical series.

Since his successful recording of "Calcutta," Welk has included more modern beats in his program with greater appeal to younger audiences, while still giving priority to his famous Champagne Music style.

Also, in recent months, there has been a "new look" to Welk himself, who previously wore only conservative business suits for his television shows, but now is seen in Continental cut suits or in contrasting trousers and sports coats.

FRANK SINATRA AND DEAN MARTIN have signed to co-star with Judy Garland on the latter's first television special in six years. The as-yet-untitled program will be presented Sunday, March 11 (9:00-10:00 P.M., E.S.T.) on the CBS Television Network.

Although Miss Garland, Sinatra and Martin are friends of long standing, they will appear together professionally for the first time in the forthcoming special production. Miss Garland previously starred on television in a "Ford Star Jubilee" special in 1955 and in "The Judy Garland Show" in 1956. "The Wizard of Oz," starring Miss Garland, has been presented on three occasions as a Christmas special.

DAVID BRINKLEY is a man who loves his work. Most people when they vacation relax in various way but not Brinkley. This summer he spent his time off filming special stories at Cape Canaveral for showing at future dates on the Huntley-Brinkley report, NBC-TV.
